

29 January 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : SA/IA

SUBJECT : Materials for Monday's Congressional Worldwide
Testimony

1. Per your request, I have pulled together and reorganized your primary materials and your backup materials for your appearance on Monday before the Senate Armed Services Committee.

2. I have broken your material into two separate packages. The first includes:

-- Your statement, which is a clean-typed version of what you used on the 27th with one minor change. (On page 5, last paragraph, you made the statement that the Soviets now sell 50 percent more arms to the Third World than we do. [redacted] double-checked that particular statement and found it to be not quite accurate. Our data shows that in 1980 the Soviets sold some $14 billion worth of arms, while the U.S. sold about $10.7 billion worth. This is roughly one-third more than the U.S. for 1980. Although the final figures are not available for 1981, it looks like the Soviet figures will be down to about $6 billion. Our analysts say that the 1980 Soviet figure was as high as it was because of $8 billion in sales to Libya, which seems to have been an aberration. Preliminary figures for 1981 indicate that U.S. and Soviet sales are about equal, or the U.S. may even have sold more, but we will not have all the data for a couple of months. I have included a chart with the 1980 data on it with your backup material under USSR and Eastern Europe "Arms Aid to Third World.")

25X1

-- This first package also includes a memorandum from [redacted] [redacted] reporting on the particular interests of the Armed Services Committee. [redacted] mentioned to me subsequently that the Committee has no questions to submit to you prior to the testimony. Most Members will be coming into this cold, and they are looking for an appreciation of the trends in world events.

25X1

25X1

--- The first package also includes the list of Committee Members and their biographies.

25X1

SECRET

and third

3. The second<sup>s</sup> folder<sup>s</sup> contain your backup material. I have included the most recent prepared statements for your substantive backup people as well as some of the miscellaneous pieces of paper which you have collected during the last week or so. It is a pretty full package, and I think it provides you everything you need to rework and perfect your overview presentation.

4. Debbie is standing by to retype your statement whenever you have it available. She indicated to me that she would be happy to do it on Sunday if you have completed it by then, otherwise she will do it first thing Monday morning. I understand that you are planning to come to Headquarters before leaving for the testimony, which is scheduled for 10:00.

25X1 5. On Wednesday, the Committee asked for an unclassified version of your testimony. [ ] has had all the backup people go through your presentation to either delete or rewrite the material so as to make the statement unclassified. The copy of the sanitized version is in your folder. I learned subsequently, however, that you are thinking of calling Chairman Price and withdrawing your offer of an unclassified statement. We have got it in case you change your mind. Please let me know if you wish to proceed any further with this.

25X1

cc: DDCI
Executive Director

SECRET